

2022 JAA - Honjo Scholarship Awards

Through generous funding from the Honjo Foundation, JAA is looking for qualified candidates for its 2022 JAA - HONJO Scholarship. This is open to students who will be enrolled in a full-time course of graduate study (except medical, music, studio art and performing arts) at an accredited U.S. university in the greater New York area in academic year 2022-2023. The student should be able to demonstrate an interest in and ideally is already involved in furthering U.S. - Japan relations. The deadline for applications is noon, February 15, 2022. You can download <https://jaany.org/scholarship/honjo> and submit to the JAA.

Please submit:

1. a resume or CV,
2. two letters of recommendation (at least one from a professor)
3. undergraduate and graduate transcripts
4. Essay on how your current course of study will help further US-Japan relations (500 - 750 words).

If you are chosen as a recipient, you will be expected to stay in touch with the Honjo Foundation in Tokyo, Japan and let them know the status of your studies and how you have used your scholarship.

You may submit your application to:

The Japanese American Association of New York /JAA
49 West 45th New York, 11th Floor, New York, NY 10036.

Please indicate on the envelope "HONJO SCHOLARSHIP."

By e-mail at info@jaany.org

*If you have any question, please contact us at info@jaany.org/212-840-6942

In prior years, the amount of the scholarship has ranged from $3,500 to 10,000.